Day 9: UYUNI – LA PAZ

Flight to La Paz.

The city of La Paz sits in a bowl surrounded by the high mountains of the altiplano. As it grew, the city of La Paz climbed the hills, resulting in varying elevations from 3,200 to 4,100 m. Overlooking the city is towering triple-peaked Illimani, which is always snow-covered and can be seen from many parts of the city. The city hosts several cathedrals belonging to the colonial times, such as the San Francisco Cathedral and the Metropolitan Cathedral, this last one located on Murillo Square, which is also home of the political and administrative power of the country.

The Witches' Market is a particular sight in La Paz. Vendors sell herbs, seeds, dried llama fetuses and frogs, folk remedies and a variety of fascinating ingredients used to manipulate the many spirits that populate the Aymara world.
